KAHAL BROS.

Neighborhood Favorite.

Mrs. E. D. Charles, of Harbor, Maine, speaking of Electric Bitters, says: "It is a neighborhood favorite here with us." It deserves to be a favorite everywhere. It gives quick relief in dyspepsia, liver complaint, kidney derangement, malnutrition, nervousness, weakness, and general debility. Its action on the blood, as a thorough purifier makes it especially useful as a spring medicine. This grand attractive tonic is sold under guarantee at Oberdorfer's drug store, 50 cents.

They Want Assurance.

Ex-President Grover Cleveland says "our people need rest and peace and reassurance." Yes, especially "reassurance." They want to be again assured that the tariff barons shall not crush competition and raise prices on the necessities of life; that the money of policy-holders in insurance companies shall not be used to buy legislation or as a corruption fund in the interest of a certain Presidential candidate; that the burdens of laboring people shall not increase; that graft in public places will no longer be tolerated, and that gross abuses of power that prevail under Republican rule shall be stopped.

Suffering and Dollars Saved.

E. S. Loper, of Marilla, N. Y., says: "I am a carpenter and have had many severe cuts healed by Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It has saved me suffering and dollars. It is by far the best healing salve I have ever found." Heals burns, sores, ulcers, fever sores, eczema and piles. 25c at Oberdorfer's, the druggists.

Mechanics As President.

American politics is a queer thing. When we look over the list of Presidents we find the names of Andrew Jackson, who began life as a helper in a saddler's shop; Abe Lincoln, who was in early life a backwoods rail splitter; Andrew Johnson, a tailor's apprentice; Ulysses S. Grant, a tanner. Now we have as prospective candidates for the chief magistracy, John A. Johnson, once a printer's devil, and William L. Douglas, a shoemaker. These older men made good saddles, rails, coats and leather; and the new ones are of the same like. Johnson, a good printer, and Douglas, a good shoe maker. Each has risen by reason of good work in his line. Each has the respect and confidence of all good men. Friends of Mr. Douglas claim that he can carry New York, New Jersey, Massachusetts, Ohio, and the solid South.

The Worst Punishment.

In changing the sentence of the negro from hanging to that of spending his life in Boston, Governor Jeff Davis, of Arkansas, patterned something after the case of the darkey in Woodford county, when Ed Marshall, the famous lawyer, told the court that the worst punishment that could be inflicted would be, neither to send the prisoner to the penitentiary or hang him, but to send him back to his master, old Bill Higgins, to spend his days, as that would be nearer hell on earth than any punishment that might be given him.

Corn Will Be Higher.

"Corn will sell 20 cents per bushel higher than wheat within the next ten years and stay there," is the view expressed by H. D. Wetmore, a grain man and globe trotter, who has given the subject much study. "Corn is very rapidly coming into its own, which means that it is worth more pound for pound than wheat as meat and fat producer," he said. "The world has but a limited area of land adaptable to raising corn, as it can hardly be produced at certain latitudes, while the wheat area is practically unlimited."

"The only reason that corn has always sold lower than wheat is because from the inception of the trade in this country the foreigner was unfamiliar with its uses and value, and we had always grown more than we could use at home. This country has now come to the point where it does not need to export corn and the grain therefore is rapidly assuming its rightful position among the cereals."

"One Touch of Nature Makes the Whole World Kin."

When a rooster finds a big fat worm he calls all the hens in the farm yard to come and share it. A similar trait of human nature is to be observed when a man discovers something exceptionally good—he wants all his friends and neighbors to share the benefits of his discovery. This is the touch of nature that makes the whole world kin. This explains why people who have been cured by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy write letters to the manufacturers for publication, that others similarly ailing may also use it and obtain relief. Behind every one of these letters is a warm heartfelt wish of the writer to be of use to someone else. This remedy is for sale by W. T. Brooks. You need no other guarantee.
